SUNSET FARM,
EASTON, - MD.

My Dear Sir

I have no recollection whatever of the incident to which you refer, in connection with selling your coins - and cannot imagine how it could have come to do you the injustice which you mention.

I have a vague recollection of having at one time in my possession some old jewelry, and, I think, some coins, from the Bond estate, but do not remember what was done with.

them.

Can you recall what you paid for the lot? If you can say what proportion the coins you mention bore to the whole amount you paid for all, I would be glad to make it good to you.

Yours Sincerely
S. M. Tucker
